

Music for Awhile

24TH SUMMER FESTIVAL

6 & 7 July 2019
All Saints' church
Alton Priors

The performance on 7 July is supported by
The Cecil King Memorial Foundation
Proceeds will go to the church

24th Summer Festival 2019

We are delighted to welcome two fabulous singers,
Robin Blaze and Julia Doyle, to join us
for this year's Festival.

Saturday 6 July, 7pm

OPERA AND MORE
PURCELL, HANDEL AND J C BACH

Robin Blaze – countertenor

Glorious songs, fantasias and sonatas by Purcell including Music for Awhile, 'Here the Deities Approve' and the spectacular Three Parts on a Ground. Sonatas by Handel, the sublimely touching Ach daß ich Wassers gnug hätte by JC Bach and show-stopping arias from Handel's opera
Rodalina, 'Dove sei' & 'Vivi tiranno'.

Sunday 7 July, 4pm

J S BACH IN THE AFTERNOON

Julia Doyle – soprano

The centrepiece for this concert is the magnificent solo cantata O Holder Tag, BWV 210, alongside solos for cello, flute and viola, trio sonatas and the exquisitely beautiful aria 'Wir zittern und wanken' from BWV 105,
Herr, gehe nicht ins Gericht.

Music for Awhile ensemble

Francis Norbury – OBOE

Emma Halnan – FLUTE

Margaret Faultless – VIOLIN

Michael Gurevich – VIOLIN/VIOLA

John Crockatt – VIOLA/VIOLIN

Jonathan Manson – CELLO

James Johnstone – HARPSICORD/ORGAN

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR: MARGARET FAULTLESS

BOOKING

opens on May 1st 2019

Tickets include a programme & drink

Saturday 6 July, 7pm · Purcell, Handel & JC Bach

Adults £20

Children (under 18) £5

Sunday 7 July, 4pm · JS Bach in the afternoon

Adults £20

Children (under 18) £5

Name:

Telephone:

Address:

.....
.....
.....
.....

E-mail:

Please send cheques payable to:

Music for Awhile to:

c/o John MacAuslan

Old School House, Wilcot,

Pewsey Wilts SN9 5NN

Please enclose a stamped addressed envelope